

Watermelons Add Up to Lots of Fun! Grades 3-4

Solve the problems. Then look for your answers in the chart. Fill in the numbered spaces below with the letters that go with your answers. Answer the question.

1. 124
2. 498
3. 406
4. 223
5. 173
6. 297
7. 197
8. 401

A J U B I L E E

Add numbers that are next to each other together. Write their sum in the watermelon above them. Continue adding until you reach the top.

The largest recorded watermelon ever grown weighed almost 351 pounds!

Solve the fraction problems.

1. $\frac{1}{12}$
2. $\frac{2}{9}$
3. $\frac{3}{17}$
4. $\frac{7}{18}$
5. $\frac{2}{5}$

J. Slice and his friends have small gardens. Find the area of each garden by adding the number of square feet. Answer the questions.

1. 13 square feet

2. Enrique's

3. Ali's